

MaineHealth Learning Community

A Partnership of MaineHealth and the Maine Physician Hospital Organization

Evaluation Results

Reconnecting the Mind and Body Mental Health in Primary Care

May 14, 2009

How did we do? *

- Total Attendance: 151
- Satisfaction Results: 3.3¹
- Practices Served: 34
- Healthcare Organizations: 14²
- Implement New Strategies: 91%³
- Average Ratings: 4
 - ✓ Pre-meeting Information: 92%⁵
 - ✓ Conference Logistics: 98%⁶
 - ✓ Plenary Sessions: 3.55¹
 - ✓ Breakout Sessions: 3.45¹

Participant Comments:

- “Wonderful networking opportunities and a chance to become inspired...”
- “Speakers were really good and I felt motivated to succeed...”
- “Plenary sessions – both awesome presentations”
- “Relaxation sessions were just what I needed...”
- “It supported to concept of complexity which I see in my day-to-day encounters...”
- “Relevant information was presented in a participation fashion”
- “This was the best conference I’ve been to in a long time...”
- “Presenters were knowledgeable and presented their topics well”
- “Very well organized”
- “I loved the motivational Interviewing”
- “Refreshing to see/hear about efforts to improve collaborative process of working with others”

* Based on responses from the PRISM evaluation survey

1. Of a possible 4.0
2. Hospitals, Agencies, Organizations
3. Likely or very likely to adopt new strategies
4. Agree or strongly agree presentation was helpful
5. Agree or strongly agree information was comprehensive, clear, and motivational
6. Agree or strongly agree conference was professional and well executed